

Letícia Magno Lemos

video editor / motion designer

Bio

Hey, I am a motion graphics designer, film editor and colourist. My extensive practice in working in fiction and motion graphics has made me take great pride towards my creativity and post-production responsibilities. I aim to educate myself constantly in new creative tools and techniques, and I am always open to learn and develop new ways of working. I'm an organised team player who respects deadlines and adapts to a fast-working environment.
